

Award Terms (Conditions)

The Scientific Committee will award the best three papers presented by young researchers. Participants younger than 35 years must be first authors of the papers, presented either in oral or poster sessions. Original contributions must address priority aspects of the nuclear energy. The evaluation criteria will consider the creativity, degree of novelty and presentation.

Exhibitions

The sponsors of the Conference have the opportunity to present their products and services in a two-day exhibition opened on May 25.

Associated Technical Events

The conference sessions will include the round-table:

- Refractory Alloys in Generation IV
